Additional Due Process and Procedural Requirements

Discovery Disputes

Parties must make several attempts on separate days to conference with opposing parties relating to discovery disputes and include a certificate of conference in their motion. All certificates of conference must state whether counsel have conferred regarding the substance of the relief requested and if the relief is opposed, agreed or agreed in part, along with a statement of what relief was agreed to between the parties. It must also state the number of attempts made to contact the opposing party, the method of attempts, and the results obtained. Insufficient attempts or failure to provide a substantive certificate may result in denial of the motion to compel or the hearing being passed by the Court.

Pre-Judgment Remedies

Pleadings requesting pre-judgment remedies (e.g., garnishment, attachment, sequestration) must be accompanied by verified facts and non-military affidavits in compliance with the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA)

Proposed orders should set out the amount of the bond calculated to protect the interests of the parties (both creditor and debtor), which should typically be the market value of any levied property. The bond amount for the debtor should merely be the amount owed if less than the market value.

Trial Dockets

Non-Jury Trials

Non-Jury trials are conducted Mondays beginning at 9:30 a.m. unless preferentially set. There are no docket positions for non-jury trials. Parties should be prepared to proceed with trial on the date set and should furnish proposed orders to the Court. Trials estimated to last longer than 30 minutes will need to contact the Trial Coordinator as the case may be set preferentially later in the day or given a special setting upon agreement or necessity. Records are taken by request only, fill out the Court Reporter's Request for Record prior to trial. Plaintiff or their counsel must inform by the Coordinator by email, or filing if the case settles prior to trial.

Pursuant to Tex. R. Civ. Proc. §509.8(e) and 510.10(c) Justice Court Appeals of Repair and Remedy and Eviction cases take precedence or are entitled to precedence in appeals in the County Civil Courts at law and may be set for trial at any time after the eighth day following the filing of the transcript in the county court. Plaintiff should send trial setting notices to Defendant via certified mail, regular mail, and any electronic delivery address on file with the Court, with proof provided at trial.

Courtroom Expectations

- Check-in with Court Staff at least 10 minutes prior to docket start time.
- Notify Court staff if you need to step out and where, so that you may be located if necessary.
- Follow proper Court decorum.

Jury Trials

All jury trials are preferentially set, dates are assigned at the Status docket, held every other Friday at 9:30 a.m. Cases are assigned based on their age, and readiness to proceed. Plaintiff or their counsel must inform by the Coordinator by email, or filing if the case settles prior to trial.

Prior to trial, the court will send notice that the parties will be required to attend a Pre-Trial Conference on the day immediately preceding the trial date unless otherwise specified. Before the pre-trial conference, each party must exchange their witness list, pre-numbered exhibits, motion in limine, edited excerpts of deposition testimony, proposed jury charge, questions, and instructions, and copies of anticipated demonstrative exhibits with all parties, and confer regarding the following:

- Agreed pre-admitted exhibits,
- Witness lists,
- Agreed factual stipulations
- Agreed motion in limine, and;
- Joint proposed charge.

Pretrial documents must be efiled, and courtesy copies delivered to the Clerk, by Wednesday prior to the pre-trial conference. The clerks are located at 201 Caroline, 5th Floor, Houston, Texas 77002, and their hours of operation are Monday - Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Exclusion of Expert Witness Testimony or Daubert Motions to exclude expert witness testimony should be filed well in advance of the trial. In a case requiring expert testimony as a matter of law, plaintiff should be given a reasonable opportunity to retain a qualified expert for trial.

Courtroom Expectations

- The Court will pull a panel of 18 jurors and 6 jurors will be selected.
- Prior to Voir Dire, the clerks will distribute one jury packet to each side and a seating chart. 20-30 will be allotted per side for voir dire.
- 10 minutes will be allowed for strikes, each side is entitled to three peremptory strikes. Any challenges for cause will be held at the bench on an individual basis.
- All proceedings will be on the record in a jury trial, with the exception of Voir Dire and Motions in Limine. Notify the Court Reporter in advance for the exceptions to be included on the record. Court Reporter's Request for Record
- Courtroom decorum should be explained to witnesses by counsel before entering the Courtroom.
- Post-verdict motions and opposed judgments must be set for a hearing on the oral hearing docket. All normal oral hearing procedures must be followed.

Continuance

Motions for Continuance should be filed as soon as the grounds for such a motion are reasonably apparent and filed at least two (2) weeks prior to the trial date.

First-time requests for a 30-day continuance that are uncontested, and service is obtained, or due diligence regarding the attempts to serve are stated, will be automatically granted. A certificate of service and a certificate of conference must accompany the motion.

Continuances after the first, and opposed continuances, will require a showing of good cause, a certificate of conference, and an oral hearing.

Vacation Letters

To assert vacation, attorneys must file their vacation letter with the District Clerk or County Clerk and file a Motion for Continuance with the vacation letter attached and served to all parties. Attorneys with multiple cases must file a separate motion for each case.

The Court will honor Motions for Continuance with vacation letters that are timely filed.

Settlements

Upon settlement of any case, Plaintiff's counsel or self-represented (pro se) plaintiffs should immediately notify the Trial Coordinator in writing (i.e., email – with a copy to all parties).

Cases that announce settlement will be placed on the Entry Docket, conducted Fridays at 9:30 a.m. (no appearance necessary) within approximately 30 days to allow parties to submit final documents. If more time is needed, notify the Trial Coordinator and file a motion for continuance.

Settlements involving minors must be set for an oral hearing. Please refer to the Motion Dockets section of these procedures for instructions regarding oral hearings. If a Guardian Ad Litem has not been appointed to represent the minor in the case, please file a Motion and Proposed Order or contact the Court.

Service of Process

All cases are subject to Dismissal for Want of Prosecution if service is not perfected, and no answer is filed within 180 days of filing.

Courtroom Etiquette & Decorum

The same etiquette and decorum expected in a physical courtroom is expected in a virtual courtroom.

- Remove hats or caps, except religious hats or materials
- Attorneys shall observe the letter and spirit of all canons of ethics and advise their clients of decorum
- Pro-se parties are held to the same standard as attorneys
- Cell phones must be silent and out of sight
- No eating
- No tobacco or vaping product use
- No driving
- Dress appropriately for Court
- Be courteous and respectful to all participants.

Compliance with Gov. Code 82.037(a)(4) will be expected from all counsel and self-represented (pro se) parties: "Conduct oneself with integrity and civility in dealing and communicating with the Court and all parties."
